New tours from Shearings combine history, landmarks and natural beauty

SHEARINGS HOLIDAYS has announced a collection of new worldwide tours as part of its 2011 programme, with three new itineraries to the US, designed to combine the country's history, famous landmarks and natural beauty.

Itineraries include a ten-day Colours of New England option from £1,599, which travels around some of America's most famous landmarks in New England.

Highlights include a day at Cape Cod, a chance to view the White Mountains and explore Boston's Freedom Trail.

Departures are available between July and October and the price includes eight nights' breakfast accommodation, one lunch, plus flights and transfers.

A Great Eastern Cities itinerary leads in at £1,499 for nine days.

Highlights include a chance to discover the historic town of Gettysburg, a day's tour of Washington DC and a seven nights' accommodation, nine excursions, flights and transfers.

Meanwhile, a 16-day Western Discovery option tours through the Great National Parks of America as well as the cities of Las Vegas and San Francisco.

Highlights include excursions to the Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon, Zion and Yosemite as well as a sightseeing tour of San Francisco and a visit to Las Vegas.

Departures are available from April to December, with prices leading in at £1,799 including 14 nights' accommodation, five excursions, flights and transfers.
